Hands Touching Hearts is a global outreach effort that gives Americans of all ages the opportunity to decorate handcrafted thank-you gifts for United States military personnel.

The Military Parade is a showcase of the pennants created by members of the community at Hands Touching Hearts decorating events.

To learn more about

Hands Touching Hearts is a global outreach effort that gives Americans of all ages the opportunity to decorate handcrafted thank-you gifts for United States military personnel. The program was originated by Ann M. Cosgrove, a graphic artist in Connecticut. To learn more, visit www.AnnM.work.

Pennants that honor sponsored service members are entered in to the parade using this format:

Honoree/LastNameFirstName Middle Initial

For example:

Honoree/CosgroveWilliamJ

In the event that two or more honorees have the same name, numbers will be added after middle initials. For example: Honoree/CosgroveWilliamJ2.

The easiest way to find a specific honoree in the parade is to sort the entries by title.
